

Objective

Successful Graphic Designer with Bachelor's Degree in Interactive Digital Design which is a combination of art, graphics and electronic music. Experienced in Adobe Creative Suite including animation, illustration, typography and website development. I enjoy the challenge of working with concepts and ideas and turning them into visual elements.

Experience

Really Good Stuff - November 2012 - present

Graphic Designer/Marketing Operations

- Reduced production time two months to roll out web media
- Created catalog images from photo studio production elements
- Designed educator activity guide manuals
- Reimagined email marketing templates for increased consumer interest

Prolifogy - Seasonal

Lead Graphic Designer

- Saved ten thousand dollars in redesign fees by creating Flash animations
- Developed web mockups via Photoshop
- Repurposed outdated design elements following new browser protocols

Poverty Hollow Primitives - Seasonal

Freelance Graphic Designer

- Photo edited product images
- Assisted in marketing brochure content

Eastern Connecticut Ballet - Seasonal

Freelance Graphic Designer

- Created thirty-second television commercial for seasonal programming
- Brochure/flyer/poster/media creation

Freelance Artist - May 2007 to present

- Digital art for clients, ranging from simplistic to more complex styles

Education

Quinnipiac University 2011

BA in Interactive Digital Design, Magna Cum Laude

Software Proficiency

Adobe Creative Suite, Audacity, Microsoft Office

Activities

After taking a nearby art class, learning to paint with oils in spare time

Attend social conventions for those interested in gaming, anime, or sci-fi